The GDC logo is centered at the top of the slide. It consists of the letters "GDC" in a bold, white, sans-serif font. The letters are positioned over a large, solid red triangle that points downwards. The background of the entire slide is a dark blue. There are several decorative elements: a small red square with three white squares to its right in the top-left corner; a small red square with three white squares to its right in the top-right corner; a small red square with three white squares to its right in the bottom-left corner; and a small red square with three white squares to its right in the bottom-right corner. Additionally, there are thin red lines forming large triangles pointing towards the corners of the slide, and a few small red squares scattered throughout.
